a staff of the University to sexually harass another member of the University by engaging in unwelcome or unwanted behaviour of a sexual nature, including, but not limited to attempting to touch or touching, attempting to fondle or fondling, attempting to caress or caressing.
(4) No person found by a Disciplinary Committee to have committed an offence under these Statutes shall refuse to comply with a sanction or sanctions imposed under the procedures of these Statutes.

Statute 81: Rules and Procedures Relating to Discipline

(1) There shall be Disciplinary Committees for students (Junior Members) and each of the categories of employees of the University by the Act and these Statutes namely, Senior Members, and Senior and Junior Staff as recognised by the Act.
(2) A Disciplinary Committee shall investigate an allegation of misconduct referred to it by the Vice-Chancellor and shall make appropriate recommendations on the charges, including sanctions.
(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall implement the decisions of the Disciplinary Committee in accordance with these Statutes.
(4) Where investigations disclose misconduct, disciplinary proceedings shall be instituted before the appropriate Disciplinary Committee by the Vice-Chancellor.
(5) For the avoidance of doubt, it may not be necessary to constitute an investigation panel
if the University is already in possession of the relevant evidence.
(6) The person(s) identified in the evidence shall be made to appear before the appropriate Disciplinary Committee by the Vice-Chancellor.

(7) Where a disciplinary action concerns a person, who is a member of the relevant Committee, the Vice-Chancellor in consultation with Academic Board shall replace that person with a suitably qualified alternative.

(8) A Disciplinary Committee established to deal with matters of discipline affecting Senior Members shall be as prescribed in SCHEDULE C (12) of these Statutes.

(9) The Vice-Chancellor shall cause the Registrar to empanel a Disciplinary Committee to deal with any matter of discipline affecting Junior members which shall comprise as prescribed in SCHEDULE C (23) of these Statutes.

(10) A disciplinary proceeding in respect of a Junior member is without prejudice to the right of the Academic Board to investigate an allegation of impropriety or malpractice relating to admission into the University or examinations and to take appropriate action including disciplinary sanctions.

(11) A Disciplinary Committee established to deal with matters of discipline affecting Senior and Junior Staff shall comprise as prescribed in SCHEDULE C (22) of these Statutes.

(12) The Registrar shall provide secretaries to the Disciplinary Committee.

(13) No charge shall be laid except with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.

(14) A charge shall be in writing, addressed to the accused, signed by or under the authority of the Registrar and filed with the Secretary to the Disciplinary Committee. It shall contain a statement of the offence or breach with sufficient detail and shall be filed with the Registrar. The Registrar shall promptly notify the Chairperson and the Secretary.

(15) Upon receipt by the Chairperson and the Secretary of a charge which appears to be in proper form, the Chairperson shall convene proceedings immediately and give appropriate notice of a date, time and place for the hearing to the alleged offender. The Chairperson shall ensure that the proceedings are conducted with due despatch.

(16) The Vice-Chancellor shall implement the decisions of the Disciplinary Committees in accordance with these Statutes.

Statute 82: Sanctions for Junior Members

(7) The Council shall establish the rules and procedures which govern:
   (a) The operations of the Appeals Board;
   (b) The appointment and remuneration of the members of the Appeals Board;
   (c) The establishment of the Secretariat of the Appeals Board; and
   (d) Any other relevant matter.

Statute 85: Enactment of a Statute

A Statute of the University is enacted if:
   (a) A draft of the Statutes from the Vice-Chancellor’s Office is sent to the members of the Council at least ten (10) days before the meeting at which it is to be considered;
   (b) After consideration by the meeting, the draft has been provisionally approved without amendment or only with amendments of which notice in writing was circulated to the members at least three (3) days before the meeting;
   (c) The Statute, as provisionally approved, has been circulated to the members of the Council. Where in the opinion of the Council the Statutes affect academic matters, the Statute shall be circulated to the members of the Academic Board at least ten (10) days before the meeting at which the Statute is to be confirmed, and
   (d) The Statute is confirmed without amendment at a meeting of the Council not less than one (1) month or not more than six (6) months after the meeting at which it was provisionally approved.
Statute 86: Miscellaneous Provisions

(1) Unless otherwise provided by these Statutes or Regulations adopted pursuant thereto or the Schedules appended hereto, the quorum for the transaction of business of any University body shall be half \( (1/2) \) of the total membership, or if such half is not a whole number, then the next higher whole number. If any Committee cannot raise a quorum for two successive meetings, the Chairperson shall consult the Executive Committee of the Academic Board for a temporal variation in quorum.

(2) No decision reached at a meeting of any University Statutory body shall be valid unless it is taken in the presence of the prescribed quorum. If there is an equality of votes in respect of any decision reached at any meeting of any University Statutory Body, the Chairperson of the meeting shall have, in addition to his original vote, a casting vote.

(3) Subject to such regulations as may be made under these Statutes, any question (s) as to the procedure to be observed in respect of any matter arising at a meeting of any University Statutory Body shall be determined by the Chairperson of such meeting.

(4) Proceedings of the Council, Academic Board, Convocation and Statutory Boards and Committees and all other Committees of the University (and documents relating to them) shall be regarded as confidential and restrictive and shall neither be made available nor disclosed to non-members of those bodies or outsiders unless by the orders of the Council or a Court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) In the absence of qualified candidates during appointment into an office that requires a defined rank, the Vice-Chancellor in consultation with the University Appointment Promotions Committee, shall have the right to consider the candidate with the next lower rank.

Statute 87: Amendments to Statutes

(1) The Academic Board may recommend to the Council any amendments to the Statutes.

(2) Any proposal for amendment to the Statutes or any section of it shall be submitted to the Academic Board for consideration.

(3) Any proposal for amendments to the Statutes shall be considered by the Academic Board at a special meeting to be convened at the instance of the Vice-Chancellor or one-third \( (1/3) \) of the total number of members of the Academic Board.

(4) The quorum for the transaction of any business of the special meeting mentioned in subsection (3) above shall be two-thirds \( (2/3) \) of the total number of the members of the Board.

(5) No amendments shall be valid unless adopted by an affirmative vote of two-thirds \( (2/3) \) of the total membership of the Board present.

(6) Prior to the date of the meeting, each member shall be given seven \( (7) \) days’ notice clearly setting out the specific subject matter of the proposed amendments and the particular feature of the Statutes to which they relate.

(1) These Statutes shall come into force on the Appointed day.

(2) The persons who immediately prior to the Appointed day were respectively the Vice-Chancellor, the Pro Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar of the University shall continue to hold office for the periods under the terms and conditions under which they were appointed.

(3) The Academic Board, Convocation, Schools, Institutes and Centres and the respective Governing Boards as existing immediately prior to the commencement of these Statutes shall continue in existence as if constituted under these Statutes.

(4) For the purposes of the initial steps for giving effect to these Statutes, the following shall apply:
   (a) Where a superior body to be constituted under these Statutes cannot be constituted, the subordinate body which is required to elect, nominate, recommend or otherwise contribute to the constitution of the superior body shall be the corresponding body operating under the Statutes or the Regulations existing immediately prior to the appointed day; or where that body does not exist, then a temporary body shall be constituted by the Academic Board for this purpose in the manner as near as possible to the procedure laid down in these Statutes.
   (b) Where any other difficulty arises in the initial constitution of a body under these Statutes, or otherwise in the initial procedure, the Chairperson of the Council and the Vice-Chancellor shall take the measures that are reasonably necessary in order to overcome the difficulty.

(5) The powers of each body existing in the University immediately prior to the Appointed day which are transferred under these Statutes to any other body, shall continue in force until the other body has been duly constituted.

(6) The Bye-laws, Regulations and Standing Orders of the University existing immediately prior to the Appointed day and not inconsistent with the Act or these Statutes shall remain in force until they are amended or repealed.

(7) If within twelve (12) months after the Appointed day, a Standing or any other Committee, Board of a School or Board of an Institute fails to make Regulations regarding a matter for which the Academic Board considers necessary that Regulations are made; or if within that period any of these bodies have made Regulations which the Academic Board has refused to ratify, then the Academic Board shall make the Regulations that it considers necessary regarding that matter.

(8) A person who immediately prior to the appointed day held an appointment in the University shall continue to hold that appointment until, under these Statutes or by virtue of the terms of the appointment or recognition, that person ceases to hold that appointment.

(9) A provision of these Statutes does not prejudice the contractual rights and obligations or any other privilege of a person who immediately prior to the appointed day was a member of the administrative or teaching staff of the University.
Statute 89: Effective Date of these Statutes

(1) These Statutes shall come into force on the 4th day of June 2020.
